Mr. John M. Albertine, President
American Business Conference, Inc.
1025 Connecticut Avenue, N.W.
Suite 209
Washington, DC 20036

Dear Mr. Albertine:

I will be most happy to meet with you and your colleagues of the American Business Conference when you are here in Washington this fall for your annual meeting. As you know, my activities over the years have included involvement in several business ventures. As have all of you, I have learned first-hand the merits of this nation's free enterprise system. The support of businessmen such as yourself is both necessary and desired within the U.S. Intelligence Community and consequently, I welcome your assistance.

Thank you again for the invitation. I will have someone from my Public Affairs staff contact you in the near future to make the necessary arrangements.

Sincerely,

/s/ William J. Casey
